For over 30 years, the Autism Society Central Virginia (ASCV) has been proud to serve as one of the region's premier sources of education, advocacy, services, and support for individuals with autism, their families, and friends.

Our mission is to improve the lives of all affected by autism by maximizing the self-sufficiency, independence, and quality of life for all living with autism, and we are committed to meaningful participation and self-determination in all aspects of life for individuals on the autism spectrum and their families. In order to carry out our mission, we offer a wide variety of programs, including social and recreational activities, support groups, educational workshops, advocacy, and scholarships.

Saturday, April 18, 2020
8:00 AM to 4:00 PM
Capital One West Creek
www.ascv.org/conference

Featuring general sessions with keynote speakers, tailored content tracks, individual IEP Consultations, an Exhibitor Display Area, and more!

Caregiver Track
Created for parents, grandparents, siblings, and others who support an individual with autism. Network with fellow caregivers while arming yourself with tools, resources, and supports to set you and your loved one up for success.

Self-Advocate Track
Created for adults with autism. Meet other individuals on the spectrum while learning more about identifying personal interests, building healthy relationships, and taking care of your mental health.

Professional Track
Created for teachers, medical professionals, first-responders, business owners, and other community members. Gain resources and strategies on how to best support members of our autism community.

About the ASCV
For over 30 years, the Autism Society Central Virginia (ASCV) has been proud to serve as one of the region's premier sources of education, advocacy, services, and support for individuals with autism, their families, and friends, and professionals.

Our mission is to improve the lives of all affected by autism by maximizing the self-sufficiency, independence, and quality of life for all living with autism, and we are committed to meaningful participation and self-determination in all aspects of life for individuals on the autism spectrum and their families. In order to carry out our mission, we offer a wide variety of programs, including social and recreational activities, support groups, educational workshops, advocacy, and scholarships.