

Inclusive Insights: An Interactive Panel Discussion

Lights, camera, action... It's time to turn up the excitement as we kick off our panel discussion with a game show twist! Get ready to join our dynamic and engaging panelists as they address the most popular CoLA questions. Not only will you walk away with answers and ideas to consider, but you may also walk away with fabulous prizes for your classroom! But, if you want to spin to win, you must stay to play! Take your CoLA experience to the max and join us for our grand finale panel discussion and prize giveaway!

Using the QR code or link below, join the conversation in Slido. You can see questions already published and add your own! Be sure to give a "thumbs up" to any questions you are strongly interested in so our panelists know which questions are most popular among our CoLA members. Be sure to get your questions in before Friday, June 7th! See you at the interactive panel discussion with a fun game show twist!
