

AAC Prompting and Wait Time

Aided Language Stimulation

Provide Motivating and Engaging Opportunities

Practice the Expectant Pause - wait for a response

Indirect Visual Cue - gesture, draw attention to AAC, then pause

Direct Visual Cue - point at or show possible messages, then pause

Indirect Verbal Cue - hint, use a sentence starter, or ask for their thoughts, then pause

Direct Verbal Cue - tell the individual possible messages they may want to share, then pause

Increase Motivation and Re-expose to Target Vocabulary - remembering that communication is a choice!
